HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 751

By Kernell

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend Deborah A. Josephs for outstanding work as a legislative intern.

WHEREAS, legislative interns play a very important role in the legislative process by performing a wide variety of tasks, including research and constituent services, for legislators and legislative staff; and

WHEREAS, Chairman Mike Kernell, Vice-Chairman Tim Garrett, Secretary Henri Brooks, and the members of the House Government Operations Committee have been very fortunate to have Deborah A. Josephs as the committee legislative intern during the often hectic 1998 session of the One-Hundredth General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, a highly regarded student at Christian Brothers University, Deborah has excelled both academically and in extracurricular activities; and

WHEREAS, she has been a very competent and intelligent worker who has been anxious to please and to learn; and

WHEREAS, she has performed each of her duties in an exemplary manner and is widely respected and admired by everyone at the legislature; and

WHEREAS, Deborah has earned the distinction of preparing the most splendid cup of coffee this side of the Mississippi; and

WHEREAS, she has not only learned to take command of her duties for the committee but also to extend her hospitable nature to everyone in at least a five mile radius of the office; and
